

How to find us

Most of our dances take place at Stowupland Village Hall just north of Stowmarket.

From the east or west travel along the A14 to its junction with the A1120, follow the signs to Stowupland. The village hall is a little over a mile from the junction of the A14, go past the village green and the Crown public house, hall is 200yds on your left.

From the north, travel south along the A140 and turn right at at the junction of the A140 and the A1120, signed for Stowupland and Stowmarket. Follow the A1120 into Stowupland - a little over three miles, the village hall is located just after the primary school and village church on your right hand side.
